

Regulatory Science Bootcamp

Clinical Trials in “Special Populations”

AGENDA

Date:
Monday,
March 20, 2017

Time:
9am – 4:45pm

Place :
USC
Health Sciences Campus

McKibben Lecture Hall
Keck School of Medicine
USC Health Sciences Campus

1333 San Pablo Street
Los Angeles, CA 90033

To register at no cost, please visit:
<https://regulatory.usc.edu>
(registration opens in January 2017)

Contact:
Randa Issa, PhD
rissa@usc.edu

9:00 am	Introduction Eunjoo Pacifici, PharmD, PhD
9:30 am	Pharmacometric Considerations TBD
10:15 am	Break
10:30 am	CTSI Sponsored Resources April Armstrong, MD
11:00 am	Clinical Trials in Adolescents Terry Church
12 noon	Lunch (provided)
1:00 pm	Trials on Pregnant Women and Neonates TBD
1:45 pm	Prisoners as Subjects Seth Kurzban, PhD
2:30 pm	Break
2:45 pm	Geriatric Subjects and Trials in the Cognitively Impaired Lon Schneider, MD
3:30 pm	Regulatory Considerations Nancy Smerkanich, DRSc
4:15 pm	Assessment and Wrap-up Eunjoo Pacifici, PharmD, PhD
4:45 pm	Adjourn

*This one day seminar can be used as a partial fulfillment for RSCI521 (1 unit course) upon approval (must register by January 27, 2016)

*Eligible for ACRP and SoCRA continuing education hours (must be present to receive the “Certificate of Completion”)

SC CTSI is part of the Clinical and Translational Science Awards \(CTSA\), a national network funded through the National Center for Advancing Translational Sciences \(NCATS\) at the NIH (Grant Number UL1TR001855). Under the mandate of “Translating Science into Solutions for Better Health,” SC CTSI provides a wide range of services, funding, and education for researchers and promotes online collaboration tools such as USC Health Sciences Profiles.

Series sponsored by The SoCal CTSA Consortium:

