

Regulatory Science Program Spring 2017 Seminar

*International Perspectives a 1 unit seminar
A Weekly Journal Club for Regulatory Affairs
Professionals – RSCI521*

12 pm – 1 pm, Wednesdays, January 11 through April 26

USC Health Sciences Campus, CHP 140

Students and faculty members will meet during the lunch hour on Wednesdays to discuss and critically examine global regulatory issues. This open forum will enhance the student's public speaking skills and analytical thinking through presentations and discussions in a small, intimate setting. Participants will have the opportunity to sharpen their skills in evaluating literature and translating research findings to submission practice, regulatory research, strategic planning, and policy making.

The seminar will open with discussions led by faculty on global regulatory trends and U.S. Healthcare reform, and expand to other aspects of global regulation with topics selected by the participants. You will have the unique opportunity to interact with a group of graduate students from Asia and to explore and learn firsthand about issues and developments beyond the U.S. regulatory system.

To register for this 1 unit graduate level course Please email regsci@usc.edu or call 323-442-3521 Last day to register is Monday, January 9

Lunch will be provided by the Regulatory Science program
